

TO MY VALENTINE

God sighted me and you, in this ring
Like two pearls on a string

I've seen many maidens,
But no one is like you even in the heavens.

Not only in the sense of beauty,
But in every treaty.

Seen many beautiful faces,
Yours left, on my heart, deep trace

To see you is the wish of my eyes,
At each instance in every day's trice

Let the people tally or depart,
But you are the princess of my heart.

We are just 'two peas of a pod',
Put together, personally, by God.

I wish in this pool of adore,
It's your canoe that touches the shore.

Listen to my small sweet heart,
It, of my life, announces you an un-separable part.

In my garden, it's the flowers of your name that grow,
No other sailor's boat, in this ocean of love is to row.

Let these two pearls in the string,
Be closest to each other for ever and ever in this ring.
